2nd Annual IGSS Conference

-Integrating Genetics and the Social Sciences-

Boulder, Colorado

With support from the Eunice Kennedy Shriver National Institute of Child Health & Human Development and the Population Association of America, the Institute of Behavioral Science and CU Population Center are hosting the 2nd annual conference entitled Integrating Genetics and the Social Sciences. The goal of this conference is to showcase behavioral and molecular genetic studies that enhance demographic and social scientific inquiry or in some way integrate genetics and the social sciences. Researchers from any of the biological or social sciences are encouraged to participate. Interested researchers are encouraged to examine the conference website from 2010 at:

http://www.colorado.edu/ibs/CUPC/conferences/IGSS\_2010/

To be considered for this conference, please submit a complete paper, a working draft, or an extended abstract (including data description, methods, and preliminary results) as a .pdf file to boardman@colorado.edu by January 15th, 2011. Please use the subject line IGSS 2011 and indicate that this submission is for the 2011 Conference in the text of your email. Decisions will be made by February 1st and participants will have until May 15th to update final drafts of their papers.

The conference is co-hosted by Jason Boardman, Institute of Behavioral Science and Department of Sociology, University of Colorado at Boulder and Jason Fletcher, Division of Health Policy and Administration and School of Public Health, Yale University and Robert Wood Johnson Health & Society Scholar, Columbia University.
