

awards

Fabulous news! Our amazing Stefanie Mollborn has won a BFA Excellence Award in the category of “Research, Scholarly, and Creative Work” which celebrates faculty contributions of the highest caliber.

media coverage & outreach

David Pyrooz's research on gangs was highlighted in yesterday's Colorado Arts & Sciences Magazine. <https://www.colorado.edu/asmagazine/2020/02/27/through-eyes-inmates>

If you'd like to share information about the center with others, this handy CUPC 2-page description was recently included in the Association of Population Centers' annual directory. Please let us know any changes/additions you might want included for next year!

opportunities

Affiliate jimi Adams is again offering an ICPSR short course on Social Network Analysis (May 18-22 at IBS). <https://www.icpsr.umich.edu/icpsrweb/sumprog/courses/0233>. Contact: jimi.adams@ucdenver.edu CUPC has some matching funds to assist with student registration, contact: Lori.Hunter@colorado.edu.

proposal submissions

PI: Stefan Leyk, Collaborative Research: HNDS-I: HiSPLUS - Historical Settlement and Population Layers for the U.S.
National Science Foundation, SMA – Human Networks & Data Science Requested: CU (lead) $719K + CUNY (collaborator) $181K = ~900K.

mark your calendars!

In March, there's St. Patrick's Day, National Puppy Day, Turkey Neck Soup Day. In April, there's April Fool's Day, National Unicorn Day, Look up at the Sky Day. And in MAY, there's →

Be sure to follow us on Twitter! @CUPopCenter

<https://cupc.colorado.edu/news>

